Services Overview

PPM Advisory Services

Headed by Terry Doerscher, PPM Advisory Services Practice Lead, BOT International offers PPM advisory services provided by internationally-recognized PPM experts designed to give you information, experience and support at each phase of your strategy.

Unbiased, Customer First Advocacy

Unlike consulting organizations or software vendors who have inherent conflicts of interest and who do not make expert resources available without a tie-in to a substantial purchase, our PPM practice uniquely places your success as our first priority. This gives you an unprecedented level of access to subject matter experts and confidence that comes from a top-tier advocacy that is focused on maximizing your value, lowering your risk and helping you successfully achieve your business results.

PPM 010: PPM Preparation Workshop

Designed for organizations that are considering or beginning a project portfolio management (PPM) initiative, this one-day workshop will help you to understand what PPM offers, the range of PPM options, determine which PPM approach is right for you, and how to successfully structure a PPM selection, design, development and deployment process.

PPM 010.1: PPM Preparation Workshop

Duration: One day, Price: $3,995

This is a workshop conducted at your location and tailored to your needs. For organizations that are ready to initiate a PPM program and need to establish a common point of reference for key stakeholders. Package includes up to 24 participants, 3 copies of our PPM reference library, and one hour of follow-up consultation.

PPM 010.2: BOT-hosted public workshop is ideal for those who need to provide an overview of PPM to only 1-2 individuals before considering further investment. Registration includes the PPM reference library. Attendees are responsible for travel-related expenses to the event. Visit www.botinternational.com/workshops.htm for workshop schedules, locations, and prices.

PPM 020.1: PPM Snapshot - Qualitative Current State Review

Duration: One day, Price: $3,995

This on-site engagement includes an objective assessment of current organizational challenges, approaches, processes, staffing, information and toolsets; a qualitative benchmark of overall project and organizational maturity and change management capabilities; and a measure of general readiness and review of potential improvement opportunities. Package includes one hour of remote follow-up consultation.

PPM 020.2 Organizational Alignment Assessment

Duration: Two days, Price: $7,995

This is an onsite engagement to conduct a quantified assessment of organizational alignment on three key planes: Strategic, Functional, and Cultural. Engagement includes on-site interview of key stakeholders; an internal online survey of relevant staff; results analysis and mapping your degree of alignment; includes a follow-up report with summary and high level recommendations.

PPM 030: PPM Roadmap

Duration: Two days, Price: $7,995

The PPM Roadmap service is a collaborative road-mapping session to facilitate building consensus between executive sponsors and senior managers and create a framework for your PPM initiative. Includes: development of business objectives & strategies, opportunity analysis, identification of high-value, low risk improvements; PPM/PMO investment business case development, prioritization, timeline development and estimation of specific opportunities.

Additional PPM Advisory Services

Take advantage of as much or as little support as you need to architect a successful PPM initiative with our flexible ad hoc support services. Costs are based on individual engagement durations and total services acquired.
